
Taylor Keating

416-602-9801
tkeatin@uw.edu

PROFILE

- Novice biostatistician eager to engage in data science.
 - Demonstrated ability to convene with professionals from diverse populations.
 - Strong collaborative leader who focuses on client centered results.
 - Effective communicator, both verbal and written.
 - Experience in several programming languages (Java, R, MATLAB).
-

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2019–2020 Marine Department Sales Associate | Bass Pro Shops, Toronto ON
- Sold marine electronics and boating equipment.
 - Managed inventory and display of marine products.
 - Provided demonstrations, educating customers on sonar technology.
 - Promoted a passion for the outdoors.
-
- 2018–2019 Consultant, Advisory Services | KPMG, Toronto ON
- Worked in the Technology Risk Consulting department.
 - Planned and executed analyses of client IT system controls (user access, program changes).
 - Provided recommendations on areas for improvement.
-
- 2017 Course Grader | McGill University, Montreal QC
- Marked assignments for 100 students in Math 329, Theory of Interest (Financial Math).
 - Emphasized clarity in work and noted jumps in logic.
-
- 2014–2017 Director of Transportation | Crestwood Valley Day Camp, Toronto ON
- Optimized the daily scheduling and coordination of a 50-bus fleet for >700 campers throughout Toronto metro area.
 - Trained and managed 50 bus counselors.
 - Oversaw communication details for bus counselors, camp staff, bus drivers, Stock Transportation, and parents.
-

EDUCATION

- Expected 2022 Masters of Biostatistics, University of Washington
-
- 2018 Bachelor of Science Degree, McGill University
- Major in Mathematics, Minor in Chemistry
 - Varsity Squash Team- 2017, 2018
-

AWARDS

- George and Lidia Petras Scholarship (academic merit in Faculty of Science) – 2014
 - Mary Powell Culver Entrance Scholarship – 2013
 - Governor General's Academic Medal – 2013
 - U of Rochester Science Award – 2012
 - U of Waterloo Avogadro Chemistry Award – 2012
-